

The book that was never written.

Without the aid of a scholarship, many promising students will not be able to realize their full potential. San Diego State students need your help—now, more than ever.

fuel potential and give to the scholarship campaign today.

Every dollar invested in scholarships makes a critical difference to our students by enabling access and preparing leaders for tomorrow. More than half of SDSU's students currently rely on financial aid, and that number is steadily increasing.

Through your generosity, as well as that of other alumni and friends, SDSU will be able to use your unrestricted gift to support the brightest young minds in their pursuit of higher education.
